Danny Boy

English ballad

Subtitle 2

This is an unlabeled verse.

Intro G7 C C7 F

A7                      D                      D7                      G
I7                      IV                      IV7                      VIIb

1. Oh Danny Boy, the pipes, the pipes are calling

D                      F#m                      G                      A7
IV                      VIIm                      VIIb                      I7

From glen to glen, and down the mountain side

D                      D7                      G
IV                      IV7                      VIIb

The summer's gone, and all the flowers are dying

D                      Em                      A7                      D
IV                      Vm                      I7                      IV

'Tis you, 'tis IV you must go and I must bide.

6b7                      7bm                      4#                      6b7                      1#

Ch1. But come ye back when summer's in the meadow

7bm                      4#                      4m                      3b7                      6b7

Or when the valley's hushed and white with snow

1#                      1# 7bm

'Tis I'll be here in 4# sunshine or in shadow.

1#                      4#                      6b7                      1#

Oh Danny Boy, oh Danny Boy, I love you so.

Second verse

And if you come,

when all the flowers are dying

And I am dead,

As dead I well may be

You'll come and find

The place where I am lying

And kneel and say ■ an "Ave" there for me.

- Bullet list item 1
- Bullet list item 2

Ch2. And I shall hear, though soft you tread above me
And all my dreams will warm and sweeter be

---

If you'll not fail to tell me that you love me
I'll sleep in peace until you come to me.
